VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 11. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 12, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

THE POPE'S ENCYCLICAL.

The Osservatore Romano yesterday published the text of an encyclical addressed by the Pope to the French Catholics. In this document the Pontiff said that his chief object in addressing the faithful in France was to comfort them in their suffering, which he felt deeply. There was, however, great consolation in the fact that the Catholics of France were united. The French government's declaration of war was not only against the Christian faith, but against all spiritual ideas.

The French Catholics must be prepared for all sorts of trials, but they were certain of final victory. This meant the maintenance of their union with the Holy See, which was of the greatest importance, as shown by the efforts of the enemies of the church to dissolve this union. Contrary to the statement made on the subject, the church did not desire a religious war involving violent persecutions. Being a messenger of peace and carrying out her mission loyally, the church did not willingly expose herself to war and persecutions, as she did not desire to see her children suffering.

Regarding the ecclesiastical properties, the encyclical said the Pope had not abandoned them. The French government had imposed on Catholics of France an organization which the church was absolutely unable to accept without imperiling her existence as a divine institution. The church could not prevent the unjust spoliation in progress, for as the proposed cultural associations were opposed to the hierarchy established by Christ, the Pope condemned them, in spite of the consequent material injuries involved at the hands of the government.

The encyclical says that the new bill amending the church and state separation law of 1905 was simply, so far as ecclesiastical property was concerned, a law of confiscation, and in regard to the exercise of public worship, it was an anarchical measure introducing arbitrariness and uncertainty everywhere and aggravating the former law. Therefore, the Pope condemned it. The adversaries of the church tried to make the Holy See responsible for the present situation, because they knew that their work was not in accord with the desires of the country.

The Pope further says: "Against the rising tide of popular reprobation the government attemps to throw the responsibility on the church, its victim; but the object will not succeed. As for us, we have done our duty as any other Roman pontiff would have done it. The high office with which heaven invested us, as well as our faith in Christ, determined our line of conduct, and we could not have acted otherwise without betraying our conscience or breaking the oath we took when we mounted the throne of St. Peter.

"There we await fearlessly the verdict of history, which must be that, with our eyes fixed unceasingly on the transcendent rights of God, we did not intend to humiliate the evil power nor combat a form of government, but only to safeguard the spiritual temple of Christ."

"What we demanded and demand for the church of which France is the eldest daughter, is respect for her hierarchy, the inviolability of her property and liberty. If that had been granted the religious peace would not have been disturbed, and the day our demand is heeded the longed-for peace will be restored.

"Assured in advance of your magnanimous generosity, we did not hesitate to tell you that the hour for sacrifice had struck, and to recall to the world in the name of the Master of all things that man here below must have a goal above the perishable things of earth, and that God honored, served and loved, despite all, is supreme joy."

The encyclical concludes as follows: "In full confidence that the Virgin immaculate, daughter of our Father, mother of the Word, spouse of the Holy Ghost, will obtain for you from the most holy and adored Trinity better days, from the bottom of our heart we give you, venerable brothers and the whole people, our apostolic benediction."

One of the highest officials at the Vatican said:

"The encyclical shows that the Holy See is fighting a great decisive battle, not only for the Catholic Church, but for spiritual freedom and duty. Pope Pius is struggling against the enemies of spiritual lights and is nobly facing every sacrifice to accomplish his duty toward God. In the encyclical the Pope states that the minimum possible for accepting the separation of church and state in France is separation as it exists in Great Britian and the United States. If the enemies of the church refuse this, it shows that they are wrong, and that their intentions are bad. As Pius VI. died a prisoner, and as Pius VII., also a prisoner, underwent shameful violence, so will Pius X. accomplish his duty to the end, as all the Popes followed the direction of the Apostle—that 'it is better to obey God than man.'"

Episcopalians to Pray for Romanists.

Right Rev. Robert Codman, D. D., Episcopal bishop of Maine, has authorized the churches in his diocese to offer a special prayer in behalf of the Roman Catholic church in France. The prayer is as follows:

"O heavenly Father, behold in mercy our sister, the Catholic Church in France, and if it be thy will that she meet with persecution, proverty or humiliation, let it be for her good and for thy glory. Grant that she may seek her victory not in fame and glorious deeds, not in new wealth and luxury, not in the humiliation of her enemies, nor in the triumph of her ambitions, but in the power of the sacramental life in the priest and people, in the family and in the home. We ask this in the name of our common Lord and bishop of our souls, to whom be all the glory. Amen."

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life.' Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at E. S. Will Remarry for Fifth Time.

Robert J. Burkett and Hannah M. Burkett, who are to live on a ranch north of Leander, Wyo., have just been married for the fifth time, having been divorced four times since they first became husband and wife, 20 odd years ago.

Within six months after their first marriage, in Montana, Mrs. Burkett applied for and obtained a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty. Within a year they remarried, quarreled soon after the second marriage, and Mrs. Burkett left her husband, who obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion.

The next divorce was obtained by the wife on the ground of desertion and non-support. The last divorce was obtained by the husband on the ground of desertion. The couple have lived in a number of Western States since their first marriage and no two divorces were obtained in the same State.

Preacher Ejected From Stage.

Henry Austin Adams, the unfrocked Episcopal clergyman, formerly of New York, later an expounder of Catholicism and magazine writer under the name of "Vincent Harper," who deserted his wife for his "affinity," was ejected from the stage of Egan's Hall at Seattle Thursday night by Frank C. Egan as he was delivering an address entitled "The Terrible Truth About Marriage." Egan rushed on the stage, dramatically ordered Adams to stop his "vile mouthings," which he declared were filthy, degenerate and calculated to cause infinite harm among the morbid and weak followers of socialism. Adams had just declared his disbelief in God, and denounced in wild climaxes the existing order of society.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 12, 1907.

AFTER TWO hours' debate the Senate yesterday passed Senator McCumber's service pension bill without division after amending it at Senator Carmack's instance so as to make it apply to survivors of the Mexican war as well as those of the civil war. The bill grants a pension of $12 a month to survivors of the civil and Mexican wars who have reached the age of 62, $16 to those who are 70 years of age and $20 to those who are 75 or over. It is said that if the bill becomes a law 100,000 more names will be added to the pension roll. Senator McCumber estimates that if the bill becomes a law it will increase the pension expenditure of the country to the extent of about $6,000,000 annually, while the Commissioner of Pensions thinks that the increase will be between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 a year. It is safe to say that under the terms of the bill at least one-third of the "unknown army" will file applications during the coming year for pensions. The country is fast becoming one of pensioners.

THAT John Sharp Williams will be supplanted by Champ Clark as leader of the democrats of the House in the Sixtieth Congress, is asserted by the opponents of Mr. Williams, who, it is claimed, have been gaining steadily in numbers during the past year. This assertion is controverted by the friends of Mr. Williams and many believed it to be incorrect. The opponents of Mr. Williams are mostly those who have imaginary grievances and one of the main objections urged against him is that he is a leader who leads and is nearly always on the floor to look after the interests of his party. This is the great trouble with the democrats; they all want to be leaders and when one is put up to lead, but few want to follow him. Mr. Clark is an able man and would doubtless make an excellent floor leader, but he certainly would make no better one than Mr. Williams, and the democrats would make a mistake in making a change at this time.

DR. THOMAS WALKER PAGE, professor of economics in the University of Virginia, delivered an address yesterday evening on the commercial spirit of the times, which is to be seen in the neglect of higher things so noticeable in American business. He called attention to the fact that every period of prosperity has been attended by much the same spirit of fraud and dishonesty, and that out of these periods has grown in time the highest bloom of civilization. The doctor is right in his observation that the spirit of commercialism has supplanted all things else but he fails to describe what he regards as "the highest bloom of civilization." If it consists in the lavish expenditure of money and Count of Monte Cristo ideas of life on the part of many favorites of fortune with the attending sorrows which reckless living brings to the birth, the country may be considered as having entered the zone of the "highest bloom of civilization."

THE FIRST voice raised in the Senate in defense of Reed Smoot's right to retain his seat as Senator from Utah, was that of Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, yesterday. During his speech Mr. Hopkins declared that the people of Utah were not on religious lines, but on industrial and economic lines. Smoot, he said, was elected primarily because of his protective tariff views. This is the milk in the cocoanut. Mr. Smoot is a republican and a high tariff republican. Had he been a democrat he would have been ousted a long time ago as was Representative Roberts.

ALL PREVIOUS records of the House of Representatives were broken yesterday when in an hour and thirty-five minutes 628 private pension bills were passed. Not one of these persons could have secured a pension under the present liberal pension laws, and it is safe to say that not one in a hundred is justly entitled to receive a pension. The pension laws have become a farce.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Jan. 12.

The President's dismissal of the three companies of colored troops charged with participation in the Brownsville shooting affair occupied a good deal of the time of Congress this week. This afternoon Senator Tillman is scheduled to make some more or less lurid remarks on the subject. He sides with Foraker. It is a foregone conclusion that Foraker's amended resolution providing for an investigation of the affair by a sub-committee of the Senate military committee will be adopted. The inquiry will be confined to the question of fact whether the shooting was done by the negro troops or by rowdy citizens of Brownsville, dressed in cast-off soldiers' clothes. The question of the President's authority will not be gone into by this committee.

Senator Smoot, the first speech in whose defense was made yesterday by Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, will probably come in for a large share of the Senate's attention next week. Early in the week the President is expected to send in the report of Assistant Attorney General Purdy on his investigation of the Brownsville affair which will probably provoke more talk. On Thursday there will be eulogies on the life of the late Senator Bate, of Tennessee. The coming week in the House is expected to decide the fate of anti-injunction and ship-subsidy legislation. The committee on merchant marine is expected to vote upon the subsidy propositions on Tuesday. The outlook is gloomy for the subsidy advocates. The judiciary committee will have the anti-injunction matter laid before it by a special committee of investigators, and then it will decided whether there is to be any legislation of this character before Congress adjourns. The fortifications and diplomatic and consular appropriation bills will be given consideration on the floor. The supply bill for the District of Columbia will follow. Chairman Burton will report to the House the river and harbor appropriation bill. Spare time is to be filled with a discussion of the bill codifying the criminal laws of the country. Discussion of wreck inquiry resolutions, although no action is expected upon them, will probably be one of the main attractions of the week in the House.

When the bids for the construction of the Panama canal were opened by the commission today, it was found that the lowest was that of William J. Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Anson M. Bangs, of New York, at 6.75 per cent of the total estimated cost. George Pierce & Co., of Frankfort, Germany, and New York city, constructors of the East River tunnel in New York, were second at 7.19 per cent, the MacArthur-Gillespie Co composed of leading New York financiers and contractors, was third, at 12½ and the fourth and last bidder was the North American Dredging Co., of San Francisco, the largest contracting firm on the Pacific, at 28 per cent. The commission will take up the bids in all their technical details, including the bonds offered, the financial competency and the plant available. The commission may reject any or all bids and is not required to accept the lowest. Under the form of a contract on which bids were received today the canal contractor undertakes to do the dredging, clearing and excavating at the ends of the canal to deep water; to construct the Gatun dam and the dam or dams to be built on the Pacific end, and all locks and regulating works, wherever located, the excavation and dredging necessary for the completion of the Culebra Cut and the removal of the Panama railroad to the relocation necessary when the zone will have been remodeled by the canal and lakes. The commission will furnish all locomotives, cars, steam shovels, and other machinery of heavy character, but the contractor must furnish all hand tools. Among the obligations assumed by the contractor is the beginning of actual construction within sixty days from the signing of the contract, and the employment of his own labor.

Secretary of State Root was again before the Senate committee on foreign relations this morning urging the necessity for the ratification of a treaty with Santo Domingo providing for the settlement of its outstanding foreign and domestic debt. His argument was addressed particularly today to the question as to whether the republic would be able, without assistance, to handle its debt. An effort will be made to secure ratification of the new treaty this session.

Senator Tillman made a speech in the Senate today on Mr. Foraker's resolution to investigate the President's dismissal of negro troops. Among other things he said that the President has violated the laws of humanity and the constitution of the United States; that he has encouraged race equality; provoked race hatred and brought about conditions more threatening than those preceding the civil war. The Senator predicted a general race law. "The President's action," said Mr. Tillman, "in dismissing these men was nothing more nor less than lynching." In a voice heavy with emotion he charged President Roosevelt with having revived the race issue and with bringing about conditions more threatening than those of 1861. "The President is primarily more responsible than any other man for the position the negroes, in the South and out of it, have taken on the question of negro rights," he declared. "He gave recognition to Booker T. Washington in a social way. He did it knowingly, flying in the face of the feeling of caste among 17,000,000 white people in the South, and against the same feeling of two-thirds of the people of the North. In referring to the President's message Mr. Tillman shouted, "Is President Roosevelt ready to act up to his convictions and have his children marry men and women of the other races? Would he accept as a daughter-in-law, a Chinese, an Indian or a negro in accord with the doctrine laid down in his message? We all know he would not, and while fine words butter no parsnips, words like his are a source of incalculable evil coming from that high source."

The Oliver-Bangs combination bid, which was the lowest submitted, will probably be accepted by the commission, unless it should be decided to make a new call for bids.

Senator Martin and Mrs. Martin have returned from Charlottesville after a short absence. They are looking after changes and improvements to the residence which the Senator purchased near Charlottesville a short time ago, after selling his farm near Scottsville. It is his intention to remodel the home and make other improvements, which will make the residence more attractive.

President Roosevelt today transmitted to Congress a special message bearing upon the break in the Colorado river and the ways and means available for stopping the inundation which is now threatened a large area in southern California. The message went to the Senate committee on foreign relations.

In view of the report yesterday that enough votes were pledged to elect Mr. Champ Clark to succeed John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi as the district floor leader, Mr. Clark today gave out the following signed statement: "Having been asked about the question of the minority leadership, it seems to me that all that is pertinent for me to say is that I am not in any sense a candidate for the petition.

The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of Arthur F. Statter, of Washington, to be assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Letter from Gov. Swanson.

Governor Swanson has addressed the following letter to persons interested in the mineral and timber resources of Virginia, in order to induce such to have a suitable exhibit of such products at the Jamestown Exposition. The Governor's object is commendable and it is hoped those for whom the letter is intended will act upon his excellency's suggestion:

Gentlemen: The Virginia Mineral and Timber Exhibit Association has been organized for the purpose of insuring a complete and practical display of the mineral and timber resources of the State of Virginia at the Jamestown Exposition. As this is the third century of Virginia's existence, it is incumbent upon the State and her citizens to make as large and successful an exhibit of her resources as possible. A splendid building, now two-thirds completed, has been secured. It adjoins the General Mines Building of the Exposition and contains about 2,400 square feet of space and thus affords an excellent opportunity for a fine display. It is necessary that this association shall have the fullest measure of co-operation from the citizens of every county in the State in collecting specimens so that the exhibit may be representative in every particular. A magnificent opportunity is here extended for advertising these important natural resources in a way to bring about largely increased developments. As Governor of Virginia, I feel deeply interested in everything that appertains to the growth and development of the State and I earnestly request that everyone associated with developed or partially developed properties or having knowledge of any undeveloped mineral deposits in this State interest themselves in this matter and do what they can toward the success of this mineral and timber exhibit. I request that all of these communicate immediately with Mr. B. C. Banks, State Capitol building, Richmond, who has been selected as secretary of the association, stating the location of the deposits and any other matter that might aid in having the properties exhibited. He will furnish instruction at once as to the manner in which the writer can assist in collecting appropriate specimens. I further appeal to your sense of pride in the Old Dominion for aid in this worthy enterprise. It is only once in a century that Virginia makes a call of this kind upon her citizens and those interested in her industrial enterprises. Let us get together and make the Virginia mineral and timber exhibit at the Jamestown exposition one that will reflect additional lustre on the State of which we have the proud honor to be citizens. The transportation companies of the State and all other mineral and timber interests that have been approached have generously responded in aid of this enterprise.

I earnestly urge you to take this matter up at once and communicate with Mr. B. C. Banks, or myself. I shall take especial interest in making this exhibit a marked success and it shall have my continuous care and attention. With regards, I am very truly yours,

CLAUDE A. SWANSON,
Governor of Virginia.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Clay Adams, wife of Robert Adams, a prominent resident of Gainesboro, Frederick county, died yesterday aged thirty years.

Mrs. Alexander Mills, thirty years old, died Thursday night at her home at Castlemans Ferry, Clarke county, after a lingering illness of consumption.

William Greenway Russell, a former prominent resident of Winchester, but for a number of years past traveling salesman for a Baltimore house, died in Washington yesterday.

Mr. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, has been retained by Messrs. James A. and Philip J. Strother as associate counsel in their approaching trial for the killing of William F. Bywaters.

At Ivanhoe, Pulaski county, yesterday evening, two boys by the name of Hartley and Lawson made an unsuccessful attempt to blow up the graded school building with dynamite, but their plans were discovered in the nick of time to save the structure from demolition. The boys were arrested.

The fine new barn on the farm of Mrs. J. B. Mecartney, near Nineveh, Warren county, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning, together with its contents, entailing a loss of $5,000, with only $2,000 insurance. The fire was the work of incendiaries, and arrests are expected to follow.

John Smith, charged with having committed a criminal assault on Mrs. Mollie Leggett, a white woman, in Princess Anne county, was tried for the second time in the Corporation Court in Norfolk yesterday. He was found guilty and sentenced to serve 18 years in the State penitentiary. Mrs. Leggett failed to positively identify the negro as her assailant.

The Stafford Mining Company, of Fredericksburg, was chartered Thursday by the corporation commission. The capital is from ten to fifty thousand dollars. The officers are: Dr. W. C. Bryary, president; J. W. McCaurdy, treasurer; Dr. F. C. Iams, secretary. Most of the capitalists are residents of Pittsburg. The object is to do a general mining business.

Miss Gladys Shelton was taken to Lynchburg yesterday afternoon from Amherst and is under the care of Dr. C. E. Busey. Her condition is favorable, though she is very nervous. If her condition warrants it, the five negroes in the Rustburg jail will probably be brought to Lynchburg today. In case the men are identified the Governor will take every precaution against lynching.

If the charges brought against Lewis Rogers, alias H. McGuire, are sustained the Richmond police have made an important capture. It is alleged that Rogers is one of a gang of baggage sharps who make a practice of operating around wealthy resorts and by a deft interchange of baggage checks at the stations secure luggage of value. During the past year, for instance, it is estimated that baggage valued at $100,000 has been lost by the railroads.

Miss Sallie Partington died in Richmond, Thursday afternoon, in the seventy third year of her age. Death was due to pneumonia. The announcement of her death with recall memories of the early stage days in Richmond, when the old Marshall Stock Company was in full swing. She had attained the zenith of her popularity when, in 1862, the Marshall Theater burned, and the company moved temporarily into the old variety theater. Miss Partington was noted for her love for the Southern Confederacy. In Richmond her name was a toast. In the camps she was an idol.

COL. ROBERT E. LEE, JR.

Governor Swanson has received the resignation of Colonel Robert E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax county, as a member of the House of Delegates, with the request that it be accepted immediately. The Governor will write Colonel Lee, complying with his request.

Colonel Lee, who assigns no reason for his retirement, has served two terms in the Legislature. He was one of the best-known figures on the floor of the House.

The Richmond Journal says considerable surprise was created in official circles yesterday when Governor Swanson received the resignation of Colonel Robert E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax county, the member of the House of Delegates from Fairfax. Although Colonel Lee assigned no reason for his retirement from the Legislature, he requested that the resignation be forthwith accepted. Under the circumstances, there will be nothing left for the executive to do but follow the course sugested.

Colonel Lee, or "Rob" Lee, as he is more familiarly known, is a nephew of General Robert E. Lee and a man of great popularity. He has served two terms in the House and figured prominently in public and social affairs. At the last session of the Legislature he was a conspicuous candidate for the speakership.

Among those who study the signs on the political horizon, the resignation of Colonel Robert E. Lee, jr., as the member of the House of Delegates from Fairfax county, is construed to mean but one thing—that he will be a candidate for Congress in the Eighth District at the next election.

Colonel Lee, in his letter of resignation, which was received by the Governor yesterday, did not explain his reasons for wishing to sever his connection with the General Assembly, but asked that the resignation be accepted immediately. As is known, Congressman Rixey's health has been very bad of late, and there have been rumors about his not standing for re-election after he serves his present term. It is hard to say how much truth there is in these reports. Mr. Rixey himself has kept quiet on the subject, but the newspapers of the last few days have announced that his health is now much improved and that he will resume his duties in Washington in a few days.

Nobody was prepared to say this morning whether it was the plan of Colonel Lee to seek the nomination only in case of Mr. Rixey's withdrawal, or to enter the field whether Mr. Rixey stood for re-election or not.

Today's Telegraphic News

Four Policemen Killed.

London, Jan. 12.—Four Russian policemen were shot to death and three seriously wounded while attempting to arrest two men who had plotted to kill Count Witte, former Premier of Russia, in his home at St. Petersburg, according to a dispatch received from the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company this morning. Count Witte was informed by friends among the revolutionists of the plot against his life, and photographs were sent him of the two men to whom his assassination had been intrusted. The two men were seen at a window of his house by the count, who recognized them from the pictures and notified the police. Officers followed the would-be assassins home and tried to enter when the lights were extinguished. The revolutionists inside opened fire, killing four policemen and wounding three. In the confusion the terrorists made their escape.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 12.—Terrorism is to be fought with terrorism. A policy closely resembling the old idea of the Western plains, "shoot first, and investigate afterward," is to be put in force throughout Russia. This is the decision of the Czar's advisers, following the recent wholesale assassinations of officials, and it probably will result in even greater bloodshed than has prevailed. As the result of the numerous murders by terrorists no official in Russia feels secure. From Czar Nicholas down officialdom is in a panic. The authorities are now prepared to go to any length to quell the terrorists. Drumhead court martials with immediate executions will occur more frequently than in the past. This programme is said to have met with Nicholas's entire approval.

Harriman vs. Keene.

New York, Jan. 12.—The bitter struggle of Edward H. Harriman to prevent James R. Keene from wresting control of the Southern Pacific from the Union Pacific, leading to the sale of the Union Pacific holdings to William Rockefeller to forestall the Keene coup, will be told by Mr. Harriman when he testifies before the Interstate Commerce Commission now investigating the Harriman railroads. Wall street learned today that Keene came within a small margin of obtaining control of the Southern Pacific. Rockefeller's purchase of the Pacific holdings saved the day for Harriman.

When the Interstate Commerce Commission takes up the Rockefeller 300,000 shares of Southern Pacific stock, it will be developed by Mr. Harriman that in 1903 Mr. Keene had bought 300,000 shares of Southern Pacific and then sought to tie up the Union Pacific from voting its 300,000, shares by obtaining an injunction from Judge Lurton. Had the injunction been made permanent, Mr. Keene would have ousted Harriman from control, as the court injunction would have prevented Harriman from voting the Union Pacific holdings.

Loath to see the Southern Pacific slip from his grasp, Harriman hurried to Rockefeller.

"If you will consent to purchase $30,000,000 of Southern Pacific and hold it for a few months, Keene's plans can be thwarted," said Harriman. Rockefeller agreed, though he said he did not like the idea of being made a dummy. Harriman told Rockfeller that Keene had already selected the new board of directors, and that unless something was done Keene would elect them. Rockefeller bought the stock and Keene lost the prize.

The Disabled Steamer Ponce.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Jan. 12.—Buffeted by heavy seas and gales, the passengers on the disabled and helpless steamship Ponce never lost their courage, and, inspired by the nerve of Captain Harvey, actually enjoyed their ordeal at sea.

When the shaft broke, it was feared that the fractured stump and the swinging propeller might crash into the ship's side Boats were lowered and the shaft safely secured. The passengers applauded the daring crew.

"For over a week the ship was tossed on mountainous seas," said Captain Harvey today, "but not once did any of the passengers show alarm. I told them they would be as safe as on shore. Do you know they actually enjoyed themselves after that and made pools on the hour of the day the Ponce would be picked up."

Two steamships were sighted by the helpless Ponce, but they steamed away. All day the distress signal fluttered from the signal halyard and at night a flare was burned.

Killed in Collisions.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 12.—One Rochester man was instantly killed and at least two others seriously injured in a head-on collision between two freight trains on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railroad, at 2 a. m., near Silver Springs.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 12.—William Schaeffer, a brakeman, and O. J. Ramsey, fireman were killed today in a freight collision on the West Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Creighton station.

Blizzard in the Northwest.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 11.—A terrible blizzard is raging today in Southern Alberta, the centre of the cattle industry. Over a thousand head of cattle have been found dead on the ranges which are covered deep with snow. Ten thousand head of cattle, looking for shelter from the blizzard, broke into the city of Lethbridge in a stampede. The loss of stock will be heavy.

Thaw has Grown Fat.

New York, Jan. 12.—Harry Thaw's long confinement in the Tombs prison has brought the young Pittsburg millionaire back to perfect physical condition, and when he faces the bar on January 21 to stand trial for the murder of Stanford White his friends will be greatly surprised in his improvement. Thaw has grown fat in the Tombs.

Convicted of Receiving Bribe.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 12.—After being out just 76 hours, the jury deliberating on the case against Common Councilman William A. Martin, alleged to have solicited a bribe from the Pittsburg & Tube City Railroad Company, handed in a sealed verdict. When court convened today the seal was broken and the verdict—guilty, as indicted—was read. A motion for a new trial will follow.

Will Let Them Fight.

Denver, Col. Jan. 12.—By declaring that he will not interfere to prevent prize fights, Reverend Henry T. Buchtel, Colorado's new preacher Governor, will probably make this State the home of glove contests in the future. Governor Buchtel made his declaration in no uncertain terms. When he was appealed to not to allow a fight between Harry Lewis and Rube Smith, scheduled for Denver within the next fortnight, to take place, he said: "I have enough duties to attend to as Governor without trying to play sheriff. I shall not interfere with any prize fighting; that is a matter for the peace officers. These men can kock each other's heads off if they want to, for all I will do or care."

SENATE.

Mr. Culberson introduced in the Senate today a bill requiring railroads to furnish cars for live stock shipments within a reasonable time after request.

The Senator explained to the Senate that he felt compelled to take such action because the committee on Interstate Commerce had failed to consider the car shortage situation.

Mr. Hansborough urged upon the committee the necessity for action of some kind.

Mr. Tillman then took the floor to discuss his two favorite topics, the race issue and executive usurpation.

Sons of Veterans.

Efforts are being made to re-organize the Sons of Confederate Veterans of this city. Alexandria is one of the few cities in the southern country in which such organizations do not exist, and it is suggested that as there are many here whose fathers and grandfathers wore the gray, a camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans should long ago have become an Alexandria institution. With this object in view, Mr. Charles S. Taylor, Adjutant of Lee Camp, has invited all sons and grandsons of Confederate veterans to meet on Monday night at 8 o'clock at Confederate Veterans' Hall on Prince street, near Columbus, to make arrangements for attending services in Christ Church on the 19th instant, the anniversary of the birth of Robert E. Lee. At this meeting an effort will be made to form an organization of the sons and grandsons of ex-Confederate soldiers.

D. A. R.

The January meeting of the Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R, was held yesterday evening at the home of its Regent, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, on north Washington street. In officially announcing the recent death of Mrs. H. C. Ansley, vice regent of the chapter, Mrs. Robinson paid a most beautiful tribute to her memory and the sincere sympathy of the chapter was extended her bereaved family. After much business of interest and importance had been transacted, an election of delegates to the national Congress, to be held in Washington next April, resulted in the election of Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard as regent's alternate; Mrs. Dabney Herndon as delegate and of ten alternates at large. Mrs. Wm. J. Morton was unanimously elected vice regent of the chapter.

County Citizens' Meeting.

At a meeting of the Citizens' Improvement Association of Jefferson district, Alexandria county, held last night in the Mount Vernon avenue school, the question of the proposed annexation of a portion of the county by the city was discussed. No formal action was taken, but vigorous speeches in opposition to the measure were made by George W. Zachary, County Clerk Geo. H. Rucker, Walter U. Varney, J. D. Ashford, and J. H. Marstella.

The meeting was presided over by Jos. E. Supplee, the president of the organization. Much enthusiasm was manifested in the plans for opposing the proposed absorption of county territory by the city of Alexandria.

Representatives of the Alexandria Electric Company appeared before the association at the meeting and submitted a proposition with a view to extending its wires from Alexandria into the villages mentioned.

The following resolution was adopted by the quarterly conference of the M. E. Church South at the meeting on Wednesday evening, January 2:

Whereas, Brother George R. Hill was identified with all the interests of the Washington street Methodist Episcopal Church South throughout his long-time membership, giving liberally from his means to its support; commending the Christian profession by his business integrity and private life of many virtues; and whereas, he had a distinct concern for and took a special interest in the religious well-being of young people; therefore be it

The man was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

Butter was firmer, however, and some country people wanted 35 cents a pound for their offerings but most of that disposed of brought but 30 cents. Eggs were 28 a 30 cents a dozen. The offerings of poultry were light. Dressed turkeys of prime quality were held at 20 cents a pound.

Excitement on King Street.

While an electric train from Washington was passing St. Asaph street shortly after six o'clock last evening the passengers were thrown into a panic as well as were many people in the vicinity by the shrieks of a lady who finally collapsed near a curbstone. It was naturally supposed that the train had run over some person, and Conductor Crockett immediately stopped the cars and ran towards the lady who had in the meantime become surrounded by passersby and people who ran out of stores. After she had been raised it was learned that her pet dog had run under the trailer and she supposed the wheels had crushed it. The dog, however, had emerged on the other side unhurt.

Making Paint With Skim Milk.

Stir into a gallon of milk about three pounds of Portland cement and add sufficient Venetian red paint powder to impart a good color. Any other colored paint powder may as well be used. The skim milk will hold the paint in suspension, but the cement, being heavy, will sink to the bottom, so that it becomes necessary to keep the mixture well stirred with a paddle. Mix only enough at a time for one day's use. Six hours after painting this paint will be as immovable and unaffected by water as a month old paint. Cases are on record of this sort of paint being in good condition after twenty years, and it has preserved the wood admirably. The addition of carbolic acid or some other disinfectant makes it very suitable for dairy work, as it then has a cleansing effect.—St. Louis Republic.

Scared Both of Them.

When Mr. Justice Maule was on the bench a bullying counsel was one day browbeating an elderly female witness in a case before him. Having badgered her into a state of utter speechlessness, the lawyer appealed to the judge to make her answer his questions. "Why do you not answer, madam?" asked the judge. "Because, my lord, he scares me so," replied the trembling woman. "So does he me, ma'am," said the judge.—Law Notes.

Kissing the Hand.

The danger of infection which lies in the custom of "kissing the hand" is once more being discussed in Germany. One writer notes that this danger was already known to the Roman emperor, Tiberius, who, as Suetonius notes, issued an edict against this practice, at that time in general vogue, on hygienic grounds.

Another Confession.

A dispatch from Jackson, Ky., says that John Smith, who is one of the men under indictment for the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, has made a confession which is now in the hands of Attorney Jouett, representing the commonwealth. In this confession Smith says Judge James Hargis and Edward Callahan induced him to enter the conspiracy against Dr. Cox, making promises to see that he was acquitted and to give him work. He tells about the murder in details, and says that Callahan gave him $100 after the killing of Cox, saying James Hargis had sent the money. According to the confession three men shot Dr. Cox.

Advices from Lexington, Ky., say that Judge James Hargis and his supporters are stupefied as the result of John Smith confessing participation is assassinating Dr. Cox at the order of Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan. Smith's confession bears out in detail the story told by Asbury Spicer, who swore to being employed by Hargis and Callahan to kill Cox. Spicer's confession was made last June. Hargis swears that Smith is lying. Some of Hargis' staunch supporters are turning on him since the Smith confession. Smith fears for his life and is beggeng for protection against the wrath of Hargis and Callahan. Hargis remains closely in his store.

Resolution of Inquiry.

A resolution was introduced in the Senate of the Texas Legislature yesterday, signed by 14 members out of 30, demanding an investigation of Senator Bailey and Attorney-General Davidson and their connection with the readmission of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company into Texas after its ejection under the anti-trust laws. A hearing was fixed for Monday next, upon which occasion both Senator Bailey and Attorney-General Davidson are invited to be present. A special order was also settled for this morning without displacement of the House resolution demanding a Bailey investigation. Every effort was made to get the Bailey investigation matter considered by the House yesterday morning but failed. The opposition to Senator Bailey, however, late yesterday evening forced the House to set as a special order, without displacement, consideration of the Bailey investigation resolution for this morning.

It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
